In the second half of November 1954, a large number of exiled Czechs living in West Germany received a free copy of the magazine "Nase Cesta" (Our Way). This magazine is published by the exile Czech Social Democratic Party in Vienna and printed at the "Vorwaerts" printing shop, at 97 Wienzeile, Vienna. The editor-in-chief of the magazine is Jaroslav Benda, at 7 Margarethen Platz, Vienna.5. The number of the magazines sent to the Czechs in West Germany contained inflammatory articles against the West which summoned the exile Czechs to return to Czechoslovakia. When some of the copies had to be returned to the sender in Vienna, it was found out that the copies of the "Nase Cesta" magazine were falsifications and that they had not been sent by Jaroslav Benda as stated on the envelopes.
